Triton College Men's Basketball Team Wins Region 4 Title and will Host Midwest District Championship Game

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – The seventh-ranked Triton College men's basketball team will host the NJCAA Midwest District championship game on Saturday, March 16, 3 p.m., in the Jorndt Athletic Complex Gymnasium (R Building). The Trojans will be competing against 19th-ranked Moberly Area Community College from Moberly, Mo.

The winner of the game will get the automatic bid to the NJCAA Division I National Tournament in Hutchinson, Kan.

General admission is $5 and free for children under 12. No alcohol is allowed on Triton's campus.

The Trojans (30-2) advanced to the district title game by winning the Region 4 Division I championship with a 93-75 victory over Highland Community College on Saturday, March 9. Triton has won the regional crown four out of the last six seasons. Their other championships were in 2019, 2021 and 2022.
