

Byran Stewart

Bryan Stewart graduated from Triton College with an Associate of Science degree May 1977.

During his two years at Triton, Mr. Stewart pursued his education while working part-time; played on a championship intramural football team; and was a member of the Triton College choir under the directorship of Mr. Frank Hodalski.

It was during these years the choir achieved several accomplishments including performing in two "A Night on Broadway" shows in 1976 and 1977 to raise funds for their European and Mexican concert tours. In 1976, the choir recorded the famous album entitled "Laudate" which is currently on YouTube, and performed concert tours in seven European countries (1976) and Mexico (1977).

Mr. Stewart transferred to Eastern Illinois University where he graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance December 1980. Presently, Mr. Stewart serves CEO of The Stewart Group. The Stewart Group advises companies, governments, non-profits, conglomerates and investors on fiscal matters. Mr. Stewart's career in finance spans more than 30 years.

In addition to his professional endeavors, Mr. Stewart has dedicated his efforts to community service, mentorship programs and serving as a deacon of his local Baptist church.
