Preamble

This Employee Policy Manual has been developed to set forth and clarify the details of employment for all full-time non-bargained for positions at Triton College.

All employees who are part of a collective bargaining unit or are otherwise a part of an employee group addressed by other Triton College publications, such as the Administrative Policy Manual, shall not be bound by the requirements of this Employee Policy manual.

It is expected that this Employee Policy Manual will be reviewed on an annual basis and be revised or expanded as the needs of the College warrant. In all cases, Triton College employees must abide by the published policies of the Triton College Board of Trustees.

In the event of a conflict between this policy manual and Illinois and Federal law, applicable Illinois and Federal law shall prevail.

Under no circumstance shall this policy manual be considered a contract for continued employment. All employees subject to the terms of this Employee Policy Manual are, and shall continue to be, at-will employees.

Board Rights

The Board retains and reserves the ultimate responsibilities for proper management of the college district in accordance with applicable law, including, but not limited to:

1. All vacancies shall be posted a minimum of five (5) working days.
2. Vacancies may be advertised as to solicit external applicants.
3. All internal applicants, in order to be considered for a vacancy, must complete a formal application through the Human Resources Department.
4. Only those internal applicants that are determined to meet all of the minimum qualifications shall be afforded an interview.
5. In all circumstances, the applicant determined to be the most qualified, shall be recommended for hire.

Discipline

At all times, supervisors and employees are encouraged to communicate with one another and to resolve any problems that may arise and, in so doing, to make use of, whenever possible, the provisions of an informal process. However, the College recognizes that, from time to time, circumstances will arise which require the just dispensation of discipline. The parties agree, however, that disciplinary action shall be for just cause shown and will be performed in a timely and progressive manner. All discipline shall be issued in a private and confidential manner.

All levels of disciplinary action against an employee shall be done so in writing with the full reasons stated therein. A copy of such disciplinary action shall be served upon the Employee.

Once the immediate supervisor has determined the measure of discipline, for that offense only, it shall not be increased for such offense. The disciplinary action taken for the particular offense as regards the affected employee shall not be a precedent for any conduct of a similar nature for any other employee.

Any employee who is being considered for disciplinary action may be suspended with pay pending the completion of the investigation and review of the facts and circumstances of the case and the imposition of any discipline.

The types of discipline agreed to by the parties are as follows:

1. ORAL WARNING

The oral warning shall be delivered to the employee by the supervisor. The supervisor shall draft a memorandum of oral warning. A copy of such memorandum shall be served upon the employee who shall sign a copy to acknowledge receipt thereof and to further acknowledge the employee's understanding that the signed copy shall be retained by the supervisor. Such memoranda may be used as evidence in future disciplinary actions with regard to said employee.

2. WRITTEN WARNING

Where the unsatisfactory performance or conduct giving rise to the oral warning has not been resolved, the employee and supervisor shall meet with the Associate Vice President of Human Resources to discuss the problem. At said meeting, acceptable performance shall be discussed. A written memorandum shall be prepared and given to the employee with copies to the supervisor and the Associate Vice President of Human Resources. All persons present shall sign said memorandum.

3. SUSPENSION

If the unsatisfactory performance or conduct giving rise to the oral and/or written warning(s) has not been corrected, another meeting shall be held between the employee, the Supervisor, and the Associate Vice President of Human Resources wherein the reasons for a suspension shall be discussed.

4. DISCHARGE

If the unsatisfactory performance or conduct has not been corrected after the suspension of the employee, the employee may be discharged from employment with the College. The employee shall be given written notice of the reasons for such discharge and be provided with an opportunity to respond to the Board of Trustees prior to a decision regarding the anticipated discharge.

Pre-Disciplinary Meeting

For discipline other than oral and written warnings, a pre-disciplinary meeting shall be scheduled between the employee, the supervisor, and Associate Vice President of Human Resources. At this meeting, the Associate Vice President of Human Resources shall inform the employee of the reason(s) for contemplated discipline. The employee shall have the right to rebut or clarify the reasons for such discipline.

Exceptions to Progressive Discipline

Exceptions to progressive discipline, including discharge, may be issued for conduct which is flagrant, egregious or otherwise non-remediable. Said conduct shall include, but not be limited to: sleeping during scheduled work hours; conviction of a felony anywhere during the term of employment, and/or conviction for engaging in criminal activity (not a traffic offense) while on Triton's campus; Bringing a weapon onto the College campus; theft of a thing of value from Triton or persons on Triton's campus; fighting or striking another employee or supervisor; abandonment of the position by absenting oneself for three or more consecutive days without notifying the supervisor; possession, sale or use of a controlled substance.

Removal of Discipline

Any disciplinary action, other than dismissal, shall be removed from an employee's file after two (2) years if the employee has received no additional discipline for the same offense.

Grievance

It is the declared objective of the College to encourage the prompt and informal resolution of complaints of College employees as they arise and to provide recourse to orderly procedures for the satisfactory resolution of formal complaints.

Definition: A grievance shall mean a complaint by an employee covered under this Employee Policy Manual if he or she believes that there has been a violation, misinterpretation or inequitable application of this policy manual or any other applicable Policy of the Board of Trustees.

General Procedure:

PRE-GRIEVANCE STAGE

Within ten (10) calendar days of an event giving rise to a potential grievance where the Employee first knew or should have known of the alleged violation, a written summary of the complaint (not a formal grievance) must be to the employee's immediate supervisor and the Associate Vice President of Human Resources. Following the distribution of this written summary, joint efforts shall be made by the College administration and the Employee to resolve the complaint. In the instance that the complaint is not resolved to the mutual satisfaction of the parties involved within thirty (30) calendar days of the event identified above, the Employee must file a formal grievance to Human Resources by 5:00 p.m. on the thirtieth (30th) day following the event or the matter is considered closed and the Employee is barred from filing a grievance. Once the formal grievance is filed, the timeline as set forth below shall be followed.

STEP 1 – Immediate Supervisor

No complaint shall be termed a "formal grievance" until such time as the Employee submits the case in writing to the immediate supervisor and the Associate Vice President of Human Resources. The immediate supervisor, in collaboration with the Associate Vice President of Human Resources, shall have the right and responsibility to discuss the case with the appropriate parties and make a determination whether the grievance shall be sustained or denied. The College administration shall respond to the grievance within ten (10) day of receipt.

STEP 2 - Vice President

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved through Step 1, an appeal by the Employee may be submitted to the appropriate Vice President within ten (10) days of the Step 1 decision. The Vice President, or administrator designated by him/her to act upon grievances in the event of the Vice President's absence from campus, shall meet with the grievant and make a determination whether the grievance shall be sustained or denied within ten (10) days.

STEP 3 - College President

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved through Step 2, within ten (10) days, an appeal by the Employee may be submitted to the College President. The College President shall meet with the grievant and affirm or deny the grievance within ten (10) days of receipt. The College President's decision shall be final.

Appeals - All appeals under this procedure will be accompanied by a written statement which indicates specifically why the disposition of the grievance at the lower level is unsatisfactory.

Time Limits - Failure at any step of this procedure to appeal a grievance to the next step within the specified time limits will be considered to be acceptance of the decision rendered at that step. All time limits specified in this manual may be extended with mutual consent by the parties involved at each step.

Personnel Files

Each employee will have an official personnel file retained in Human Resources.

No material derogatory to an employee's conduct, service, character, or personality shall be placed in the file unless the employee has had an opportunity to read the material and affix his signature to the copy to be filed with the understanding that such signature merely signifies that he has read the material to be filed and does not necessarily indicate agreement with the contents.

Upon written request by an employee submitted twenty-four (24) hours in advance, said employee shall be permitted to examine in the Human Resource department the official cumulative file, but not to mark, destroy, or remove any of the contents. Examination of personnel files shall occur during business hours.

Upon written request, an employee shall receive a copy of material in his files.

Drug and Alcohol Free Workplace

In accordance with the Federal Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, Triton College is committed to maintaining a work place that is free from the effects of drug and alcohol use. To promote this goal, all employees shall be prohibited from:

- 1 The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, use or being under the influence of a controlled substance, including, but not restricted to, narcotic drugs, hallucinogenic drugs, amphetamines, barbiturates, anabolic steroids, and marijuana, while on College premises or while performing work for the College.

2. The distribution, consumption, possession of, or being under the influence of alcohol while on College premises or while performing work for the College.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is illegal under both State and Federal law. In some cases, it may be subject to prosecution under the criminal sexual conduct law.

In support and implementation of the law, and in an effort to provide an educational environment free from condoned harassment, it is the policy of Triton College that no member of the college community including but not limited to employees or students may sexually harass another. Any employee or student will be subject to disciplinary action for violation of this policy.

Unwelcome request for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

1. submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or education;
2. submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for academic or employment decisions affecting that individual;
3. such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or professional performance.

Sexual harassment in any situation is reprehensible. It is particularly damaging when it exploits the dependence and trust inherent in student/faculty or employee/supervisor relationships. When the authority and power inherent in these relationships is abused in this way, there is potentially great damage to the individual, to the person complained of and to the general climate of the College.

Discrimination

It is the policy of Triton College not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, disability, age, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status or any other basis which is protected by law in admission to and participation in its educational programs, employment policies, or college activities.
