Automotive Technology Goals

Upon completion of the Automotive Technology program, the student will be able to:

- Gain theoretical and practical knowledge needed to work in the field of automotive technology.
- Seek employment at automotive dealerships and independent repair facilities as an automotive technician or specialist in the certificate areas.