A moment of silence was observed in memory of the victims of the Boston Marathon tragedy.

---

Take A Step for Vets

The Triton College Student Association will be participating in A Step for Vets on Saturday, April 27.

See more information here and get involved to help Veterans in our district by walking or making donations.

---

Preparing for Re-Accreditation  Director of Planning & Accreditation Pamela Perry reported on progress made on the college’s Self-Study in preparation for our HLC accreditation visit in October 2013. The Self-Study identifies the institutions strengths and challenges and it’s important for all employees to be involved. Visit the Planning & Accreditation page to learn more about the accreditation process and access the Self-Study chapters as they are developed and provide your comments.

---

Triton Faculty Are Outstanding!  Michael Kazanjian in Behavioral Science and Lesley Gottlinger in Education were recognized as this year’s Outstanding Adjunct Faculty. Julianne Murphy from Health, Sport & Exercise Science and Gabe Guzman from the Science Department were recognized as this year’s Outstanding Faculty. The faculty were congratulated and thanked for their service to the students and college. President Granados commented, “We are privileged to have these faculty, who were honored by their peers, on our faculty. We wouldn’t be able to achieve our goals in student success without them.” Mr. Kazanjian and Dr. Guzman are Triton’s nominations to ICCTA for the statewide Outstanding Adjunct Faculty and Faculty Awards.
Honoring Trustees

Trustee Irene Del Giudice was honored for her unselfish service to the students, community, and Board of Trustees of Triton College from 1989-2013. Mrs. Del Giudice spoke of her many years at Triton, both as an employee and a Trustee, commenting that she has worked with some really great people whom she will never forget.

Student Trustee Andrew Smith was also recognized for his hard work and exemplary service as Student Trustee for the past two years. In addition to receiving a commemorative plaque, Mr. Smith was able to retain his college iPad through the generosity of Vice Presidents Olson and Sullivan and the Triton College Foundation.

Action Exhibits and Purchasing Schedules Approved  All of the exhibits presented to the Board were approved, including the Curriculum Committee Recommendations, and college-related travel. See the Board of Trustees website for information on all of the items that went to the Board of Trustees in April.

ERP Progress  Dr. Granados reported on the great accomplishment of going live with Fall Registration yesterday, April 15. She recognized all who have been involved, both behind the scenes and those learning new processes, applauding them for their continued work.

Jamie Marie DePaolo was sworn in as the new Student Trustee.