Fall Semester Starts Next Week

Welcome Back Students! TCSA President Doris Davenport reported excitement about the start of school next week. Welcome Back Week will feature Commit to Complete on August 29 to provide students with information on all the resources they need to succeed at Triton College.

Thank You Employees! President Granados thanked everyone for their hard work and support in preparing for the new academic year.

Working as a Community--Preparing for Re-Accreditation The college is in the final stages of preparation for the HLC Accreditation visit October 21-23. A celebration is planned on September 17 from 2-4 p.m. in B-204/210 to recognize the staff and faculty’s dedication to institutional progress over the past seven years of Triton’s accreditation.

Recognizing Excellence

NISOD, the National Institute for Staff & Organizational Development recognizes the importance of teaching and leadership excellence in institutions of higher education. OPH Faculty Deb Baker received the NISOD Teaching Excellence award this past year for her work and commitment to our students.

Action Exhibits and Purchasing Schedules Approved: All of the exhibits presented to the Board were approved, including the enactment of several Board Policies. See the Board of Trustees website for information on all of the items that went to the Board of Trustees in August. The Board Policy Manual can be accessed from either the public website or employee portal.

SUCCESS – Make a career of it

The Marketing Department was applauded for the latest marketing campaign and commercial that features some familiar faces on campus.

Visit Triton’s Online Media Room here to view the video along with recent press releases.

Watch for changing traffic patterns as the Roadway and Parking Lot Improvement Project begins this week. See information and map of construction here.