About the Ethics Review Pre-Application

The Ethics Review Pre-Application provides an early ethics review of violation(s) that would otherwise need to be reported on your Application for Certification and Registration when you have completed an ARRT-recognized educational program.

This form is reserved for those who are:

• not yet enrolled in an ARRT-recognized educational program, or
• enrolled in an ARRT-recognized educational program and are at least six months away from graduation.

Note that the review applies only to violations specified in the Ethics Review Pre-Application packet; it does not apply to any violations not reported or occurring after submission of the Ethics Review Pre-Application.

Submission of the Ethics Review Pre-Application does not waive any other ARRT eligibility and application requirements. An Application for Certification and Registration must still be submitted at the time of graduation.

What to report

The Ethics Review Pre-Application may be used to report the following:

• Criminal proceedings including:
  - misdemeanor charges and convictions,
  - felony charges and convictions,
  - military court-martials; and/or
• Disciplinary actions taken by a state or federal regulatory authority or certification board; and/or
• Honor code violations.

Information on the types of documentation that need to be included with the form can be found on the next page.
