Bibliography

Ardelia is the owner of Serenity and Fun Travel Group. She has nine years of travel experience with all cruise lines, airlines, hotels, and travel suppliers. She enjoys planning vacations and cruises for her clients. She is a proud and active member of Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA) and American Society of Travel Advisors (ASTA).

CLIA is the world's largest cruise industry trade association that provides a unified voice and a leading role to the global cruise community. ASTA is the leading global advocate for travel advisors, the travel industry, and the travel public. It is the world's largest association of travel professionals! Our mission is to help leverage the collective voices of the travel agent community regarding the political and legislative issues affecting the travel industry.

Before starting her own travel business, Ardelia was an excellent and nurturing teacher. She loves children and believe every child deserve the opportunity to explore and discover the world in which they live. Throughout her 26 years of working with children, she has accomplished years of "Family Partnership Awards" and "Awards of Excellence" for her teaching and for her dedication to Early Childhood Education.

Ardelia is currently working full time as a travel advisor within her travel business. As she plans and create fantastic vacation packages for her clients, she is also keeping her clients updated regarding the pandemic travel protocols. With constant changes within the travel industry, Ardelia is committed to keeping her clients informed on how it's affecting the cruise and travel industry.

Ardelia lives in Maywood with her husband Arthur. She has two beautiful daughters, one awesome son in law and three lovely grandchildren.
