

Standards of Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal Form

Public Law 99-498 and Federal regulations [34CFR 668.16(e)] require a student to maintain satisfactory academic progress in three areas – cumulative grade point average, cumulative completion rate, and maximum time frame. In accordance with this policy, a copy of Triton College’s Standards of Academic Progress (SAP) can be found in the college catalog, online at www.triton.edu/finaid or a copy can be obtained in the Office of Financial Aid. You are required to submit an Appeal Form if you have not maintained standards.

THIS APPEAL WILL BE CONSIDERED FOR THE REINSTATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AID FOR (CHOOSE ONE):
Fall _____	<input type="checkbox"/>	PLEASE NOTE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The last day to appeal for a semester is the last day of that semester. Committee meeting dates are posted in the Office of Financial Aid. All appeals must be submitted by noon the day before the committee meeting. If the College determines during SAP review that a student cannot mathematically complete the required courses for the educational program within the maximum time frame, the student will become ineligible for financial assistance.

Standards of Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal Form

Directions: Complete and submit EACH of the items below.

Please Note: Incomplete information will cause a delay in the review of your appeal or a denial of your request. Be sure to address each relevant item below.

Please make sure to check each box once you have completed each step.

Completed Appeal Form

Narrative Statement

- Provide a typed statement describing the reasons and the circumstances for your inability to meet standards.
- What is now different in your situation to ensure your success at Triton? You may provide documentation from individuals aware of your circumstances (i.e. employer, physician, psychologist, counselor, tutor, special support service staff members, etc.).
- If you withdrew (W) from a class explain the reason.
- If you received an incomplete (I) for a class explain the reason and provide documentation from the professor on what you need to accomplish to complete the class and when a grade will be posted.
- If there are other mitigating circumstances (i.e. medical problems, death of a relative, significant emotional or physical trauma, etc.), which have affected your ability to meet standards, indicate them and provide appropriate documentation.
- List or describe any additional significant information that might affect this appeal.
- It is required that you outline the specific steps you are taking to ensure your future success.

Documentation to substantiate any mitigating circumstances

- The committee will only review the materials you provide; therefore if you have any documents that support the situation listed in your appeal narrative, please attach them to this form.
- If medical problems contributed to your inability to meet standards, attach any supporting evidence that you can provide from your counselor, hospital, physician, etc. that will explain your particular situation.

Academic Plan signed by a school official (counselor, faculty, Enrollment Services rep., etc.)

- An academic plan must be submitted with the appeal. Future appeals will only require a new academic plan if you change your program of study or if your previous academic plan has expired.
- Access an academic plan template by visiting your Student Portal: mytriton.triton.edu, the Academic Program Plan is under Student Services, Counseling & Transfer Services.
- Review the instructions provided and click the “Blank Academic Program Plan” button to download and save the document.
- Academic plans must be developed in one of two ways: you may meet with a Triton College school official (counselor, faculty, Enrollment Services representative, etc.) and complete your plan with their guidance or you may complete your plan independently. For either option, a school official must review and sign your plan.
