Triton College's Adult Education Program Now Hiring ESL Instructors

Those Interested Should Visit Triton's Website

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – Triton College's Adult Education Program is currently hiring English as a Second Language (ESL) adjunct instructors. The Adult Education Department is hoping to recruit individuals passionate about teaching and helping non-native speakers.

Available positions include part-time (adjunct) instructors to teach morning and evening classes to beginning, intermediate and advanced non-English adult students. Instructors will receive $47.24 an hour.

Those interested must have a bachelor's degree. Some teaching experience is preferred but not required, e.g., kindergarten through 12th grade, or foreign language or bilingual education and ESL endorsement. Prior adult education experience is also preferred.

Jacqueline Lynch, Triton's dean of Adult Education, said instructors will be provided access to a fully built-out, standards-aligned, online ESL curriculum. There is no need to be able to speak the native language of the students.

“Due to the influx of students coming from both the Ukraine and Latin American countries, there's been a greater demand for ESL instructors,” said Dr. Susan Campos, vice president of Academic Affairs. “Teaching can be very rewarding.”

Those interested in applying should go to jobopenings.triton.edu and search for “adjunct faculty” to get more detailed job descriptions and further information.
