Triton College Hosts Virtual and In-Person Information Session on Early Childhood Education and Education Cohort Programs

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – The Triton College Education Department and Admissions Office will be hosting a free virtual and in-person information session on Monday, Aug. 8, 6 p.m., in the B Building (Room B-204).

Triton College Education professor Ayelet Harpaz Miller said the info session will provide an overview of the Early Childhood Education and Education Cohort programs.

“Education is a rewarding career path,” said Harpaz Miller. “The education field offers many different possibilities for students.”

The session will also provide information about different career options within the education field and an opportunity for potential students to meet with the Admissions Office to begin their application process.

“Triton offers a great foundation that prepares students for the education field,” said Director of Admissions Ken Smith.

Those interested can attend in person or virtually. No registration is required.

To join the session virtually, visit <https://zoom.us/j/94465018377>.
