Triton College's Transfer Center will Assist Students with Transferology
Transferology is a Free Student Tool That Shows How Courses Transfer

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – Triton College's Transfer Center will be assisting students using Transferology (a free student tool that shows how courses transfer to colleges and universities), in the B Building (B-110) or on Zoom. Appointments can be made in 15-minute time slots.

According to Nelly Marcial, director of the Transfer Center, students will be shown how to create an account and how to upload their courses to Transferology by a student ambassador during their appointment. Then, they will be able to see transferability and how to use the degree audit function.

"If a student has a Transferology account, they can plan their coursework based on the admission requirements and courses that transfer," she said.

Since many Illinois and out-of-state universities have their transfer equivalencies posted on Transferology, it is an important tool to use.

Marcial feels that Transferology casts a "larger net on the possibilities of transfer," and "empowers students to become informed about their transfer journey."
