Ophthalmic Technician Program OPH.AAS.AAS

This check list serves to help the student keep track of the admission steps for the Ophthalmic Technician program.

_____ Attendance at an Information Session highly encouraged

_____ Complete Triton College application online

_____ Complete Mandatory Selective Admission Application for Health Careers online

_____ Send proof of High School graduation to Triton College Records department

_____ Forward official college transcripts to Triton College Records department

Program Prerequisites

Ophthalmic Technician does not have prerequisites, except for completion of the placement exam and a GPA of 2.0 or above.

General Education requirements

Students awaiting admission to the program are strongly encouraged to complete other general education required courses prior to entering the program.

_____ AHL 100 Intro to Patient Care

_____ AHL 101 Essentials of Medical Terminology (1) OR AHL 120 Comprehensive Medical Terminology (3)

_____ AHL 109 Drug Calculations

_____ AHL 102 Ethics and Law for Allied Health (1) OR AHL 202 Comprehensive Medical Ethics (3)

_____ RHT 101 Freshman Rhetoric & Composition

_____ BIS 101 Human Biology (4) OR BIS 136 Functional Human Anatomy (4) OR BIS 240 Human Anatomy & Physiology (4)

_____ PSY 100 Introduction to Psychology

_____ SPE 101 Principles in Effective Speaking

_____ HUM Any General Education Humanities

At the OPH Program orientation and the end of every semester, you will be given a signed registration form with the OPH courses that must be taken the following semester. Core OPH courses can only be registered for with a signed registration form. _It is your responsibility to add any additional non- OPH courses that must be taken._

Make sure to list your Program of Study as the Ophthalmic Technician Program, OPH.AAS.AAS, your student portal will list all required program courses, which have been register for, in progress, and completed. This is an easy way to keep track of your progress.

When is doubt... see an Advisor or Lisa Maas for assistance. lisamaas@triton.edu   Room H 143