Triton College Library Hosting “Work in Progress” Event
Faculty Member Seth McClellan Will Be Featured

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – The Triton College Library will be hosting “Work in Progress,” on Wednesday, April 26, at 3:30 p.m., in the Library Upper Commons. “Work in Progress” is a series of conversations with Triton faculty that highlight their creative work. On April 26, the event will feature award-winning director and faculty member Seth McClellan.

All community members are invited and registration is not required.

McClellan will be discussing his two documentaries, Others Before Self and Little Wound’s Warriors. The presentation includes a description of the process to create a documentary and how students can pursue a career in filmmaking.

Others Before Self won best documentary at the Socially Relevant Film Festival in New York City and Little Wound’s Warriors won the Best Public Service Award at the American Indian Film Fest in San Francisco.

“Work in Progress,” a pre-pandemic series program hosted in the Library, spotlighted various Triton faculty members pursuing interesting and noteworthy projects outside of Triton. The Library is excited to bring the series back to Triton.

“Many of our Triton College faculty members have accomplishments that go beyond the classroom,” said Dr. Dubravka Juraga, Triton Library chairperson.
