Triton College Hosting Global Music Series

Featuring Artists from Chicago's Old Town School of Folk Music

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – The Triton College Visual, Performing and Communication Arts Department is hosting a Global Music Series on Wednesday, Nov. 8, 7-8 p.m., in the Triton College Performing Arts Center, R Building (Room R-218). Admission is free.

This performance will feature Duo Cielito Lindo, who will perform Mexican folk music using two guitars and two voices. Enjoy classical Mexican boleros, rancheras, huapangos and sones.

“We are happy to be able to continue our collaboration with Chicago’s Old Town School of Music,” said Salvatore Siriano, Triton’s lead music instructor. “We are excited to bring their talented artists on campus to perform for our community.”

Siriano hopes that the Global Music Series exposes Triton students to diverse musical sounds to help them discover commonalities across ethnic traditions.
