

Luke Casson—Trustee

Luke Casson was elected as a member of the Board of Trustees in 2015.

Luke A. Casson is a founding partner of Andreou & Casson, Ltd. in Chicago, Illinois and has been practicing law since 1993. He is licensed to practice law in Illinois and Indiana and has primarily practiced in the areas of Commercial Litigation, Constitutional Litigation and Employment Litigation. Professionally, Luke has been honored to represent non-profit organizations, charities, educational institutions and religious organizations during his career. Luke, like many of the Triton College graduates, benefitted from the experience and opportunity for academic growth offered by our community colleges. Luke attended Illinois Wesleyan University where he played football, and is a graduate of DePaul University of Chicago and Valparaiso University School of Law. Luke is a member of the United States Supreme Court Bar, Seventh Circuit Bar Association, Illinois State Bar Association, Chicago Bar Association and the Calumet Inns of Court.

Luke has been a volunteer for WonderWorks, the Oak Park and River Forest Historical Society, St. Giles Parish, the Democratic Party of Oak Park, and the Oak Park Cycle Club.

Luke served on the Triton College Foundation Board of Directors from May 2012 through April 2015, and served as its Secretary and on its Governance and Hiring subcommittees. Luke has also served the Board of Trustees for Triton College as a member of the Finance Committee since January, 2014.

For the past 14 years, Luke has resided in Oak Park, Illinois with his wife, Amie, and their two children.
