

TRITON COLLEGE

BOARD BRIEFS

August 27, 2019

Supporting Classified and Mid-Managers

The Boardroom was packed with employees and union supporters as several employees and guests spoke during citizen participation and employee group reports about the hard work and services Classified and Mid-Management staff provide to the institution and its students. With their contract negotiations ongoing, they asked for a fair contract. Chairman Mark Stephens thanked the employees for attending and invited them to Board meetings on a regular basis.

Student Recognition Congratulations to Izabela Drowniana, awarded the Daniel Johnson EMT Excellence Award for the Fall 2018 semester. Ms. Drowniana has completed a BS in Biology from UIC and her goals include becoming a paramedic and a doctor.
