

ANNUAL ASSESSMENT: [Technology Advisory Distance Education Committee (TADEC) [2018]

Committee Purpose Statement:

The Technology Advisory Distance Education Committee (TADEC) is a standing committee on the Academic Senate and engages in discussions and decisions related to the acquisition, maintenance and use of current and future technology for teaching and learning. In addition, TADEC will advise, evaluate, review, and develop guidelines for the Triton College Technology Plan and Distance Learning Education Strategic Plan. TADEC makes recommendations on policy that strategies in nature to promote distance education and support institutional and academic efforts of the College related to the appropriate use of technology.

What were [TADEC]'s Goals for the [2017-2018] Academic Year?

1. [Implement In-house training program]
2. [Monitor any technology issues and updates conveyed]
3. [Monitor any Bb and distance education issues]

What were [TADEC]'s Results for the [2017-2018] Academic Year?

1. In-house faculty training program implemented
[In-house faculty training was proposed to Senate during October and November 2017. The pilot began 4/30/2018 with 15 students].

Evidence: [The In-house online faculty training program pilot began 4/30/2018 with 15 students].

2. TADEC continues to monitor technology issues throughout the campus.

Evidence: [Insight Software is being looked at and will be monitored for the fall].

3. Monitor any Bb and distance education issues. No issues or concerns regarding Bb and distance education have been brought to the committee in the spring 2018 semester.

Evidence: [TADEC will continue to monitor and provide opportunities for faculty to bring forward and address issues].

Date: [05/29/18]

ANNUAL ASSESSMENT: [Technology Advisory Distance Education Committee (TADEC) [2018]

What are Areas of Improvement/Changes to Consider for the [2018-2019] Academic Year?

- [Continue to provide up to date information on Bb and technology throughout Triton's campus].
- [Continue to look at increasing committee members to the group. There are currently several vacancies and faculty input is needed with distance education].

Date: [05/29/18]