A New Academic Year!

The new academic year has begun, marked with a successful Teaching and Learning Day and a strong sense of teamwork and excitement across campus. Positive remarks from the Student Senate, Faculty and Mid-Management leaders, and the College President reinforced a shared commitment to student success and institutional progress.

President's Update President Mary-Rita Moore shared that the first week of classes went very well. Campus is lively, with students back, walking around, and actively engaged. Guided Pathways has played a vital role in helping students start on the right track, and we will continue providing the support they need in their academic journey. President Moore thanked everyone for their hard work and ongoing commitment, encouraging all to keep up the great efforts. "It's a lot," the President noted, "but it's worth it."
