TWO RELIGIOUS CRITIQUES OF LIBERAL DEMOCRACY
a Book by Johnson Lawrence

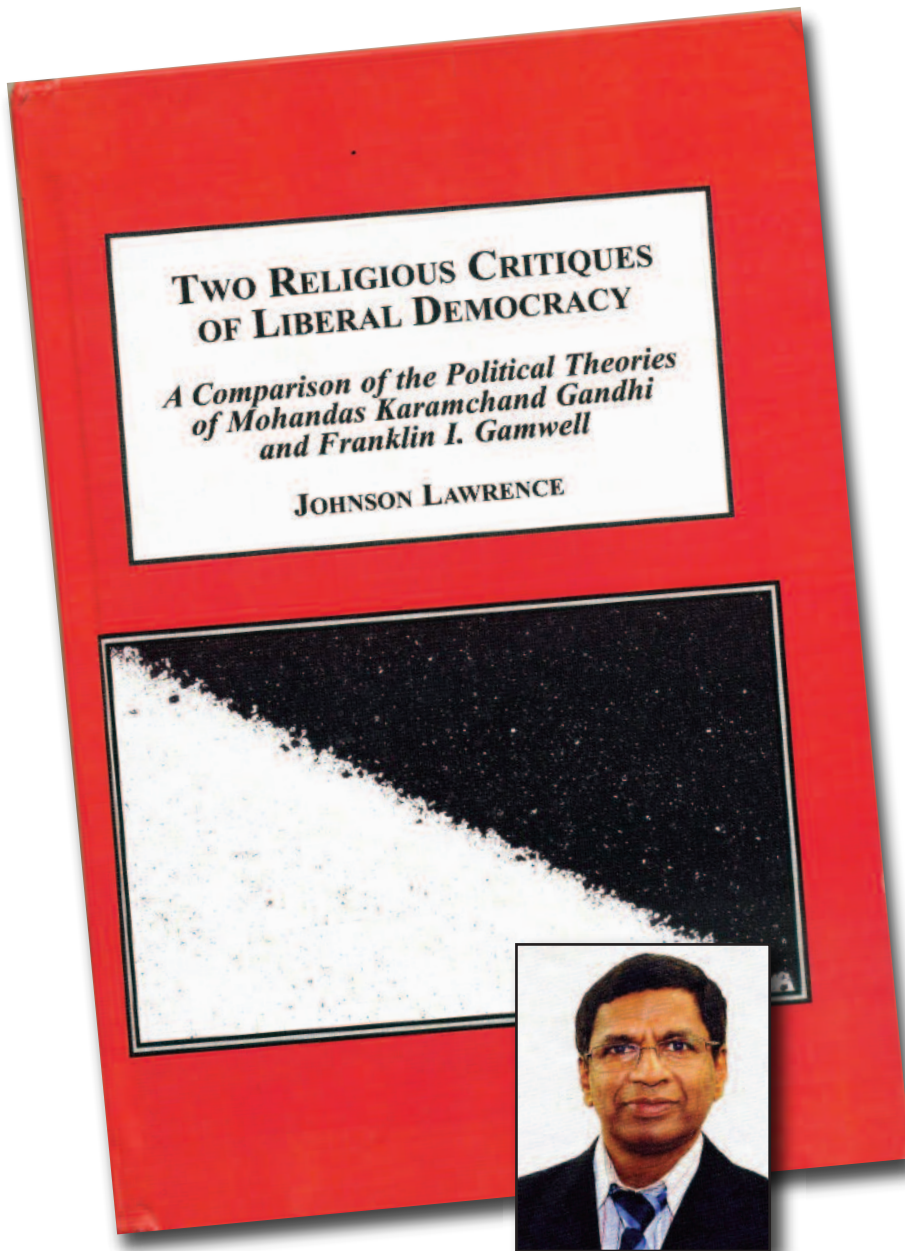

Thursday, March 2 • 2 p.m.

Library - Second Floor Silent Reading Room

Democracy may be the best form of government known to us so far, yet it is dominated by secularism and political liberalism. Franklin I. Gamwell and M. K. Gandhi offer an alternative view, as they argue for a theistic ground for morality and political ethics, while upholding the values of democracy, religious freedom, autonomy and human rights.

Dr. Johnson Lawrence works as Adjunct Faculty at the College of DuPage and Triton College. He is also a Pastor in the Church of South India. He received his Ph.D. from the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago.
