

TRITON COLLEGE BOARD BRIEFS

October 19, 2021

Welcome New Officers

Police Chief Austin Weinstock issued the oath of office to new Police Officers Gerald Smith and Terry Fears.

The audience of College staff, fellow Police personnel and families applauded Officer Smith and Officer Fears, and wished them well in their new service.

Visit the Triton College Police & Campus Safety website here for information about the department including safety tips.

Vax or Test President Mary-Rita Moore, along with employee group leaders and student leadership, mentioned progress made in bringing the College into compliance with the Vaccination or Test Executive Order. As of today, 88 percent of employees and 37 percent of students are in compliance. President Moore expressed appreciation to the leaders and the Human Resources and Information Systems departments for their efforts in reaching out and providing assistance.

Chairman's Report

Serving At-Risk Students Chairman Mark Stephens provided an update on the initiative to serve students who become high school drop-outs. He plans to meet with President Moore next week about the panel of educators being assembled to discuss and make plans for how the College can make an impact on these underserved citizens in our district.

Action Exhibits & Purchasing Schedules Approved All of the exhibits presented to the Board were approved, including the purchase of wireless hot spots for student access, and curriculum recommendations. See the Board of Trustees website for information on all of the items that went to the Board of Trustees in October.
