I. Introduction

Triton College is committed to sustaining a learning environment that is free from sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, harassment, threats, intimidation, or bullying on the basis of sex, dating violence, domestic violence, retaliation, and stalking. Conduct of this type by students, employees, and other individuals and entities who interact with our students and employees is prohibited. This prohibition applies in any context which has a reasonable relationship to Triton's educational programs and activities, regardless of whether the conduct takes place on or off campus. A reasonable relationship includes enrolled students or active employees of Triton College. Thereafter, the policy defines prohibited conduct and explains the process for making, investigating, and resolving complaints of prohibited conduct, including outcomes, rights, responsibilities, and resources.

Triton College requires its employees who observe or become aware of prohibited conduct to report such conduct in support of efforts to maintain a safe and productive environment for all members of the College community. We strongly encourage students and other individuals who experience or observe prohibited conduct to do the same.

This policy is intended to be consistent with federal law, including Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 ("Title IX") and the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), as well as the Illinois Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act.

Title IX prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs and activities in federally-funded schools at all levels.

Title IX protects students, employees, applicants for admission and employment, and other persons from all forms of sex discrimination, including discrimination based on gender identity or failure to conform to stereotypical notions of masculinity or femininity. All students, as well as other persons at Triton College, are protected by Title IX regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, part- or full-time status, disability, race, or national origin in all aspects of a recipient's educational programs and activities. The essence of Title IX is that an institution may not exclude, separate, deny benefits to, or otherwise treat differently any person on the basis of sex unless authorized to do so under Title IX or the Department's implementing regulations.

II. Prohibited Conduct

Examples of behaviors that would constitute prohibited conduct include dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, harassment, threats, bullying, stalking, and retaliation.

- i. Dating Violence is violence and abuse committed by a person to exert power and control over another person with whom they have been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature. Dating violence often involves a pattern of escalating violence and abuse over a period of time. Dating violence covers a variety of actions and can include physical abuse, psychological and emotional abuse, and sexual abuse. It can also include "digital abuse", the use of technology, such as smartphones, the internet, or social media to intimidate, harass, threaten, or isolate a person.
- ii. Domestic Violence is a pattern of abusive behavior in a relationship that is used by a family or household member to maintain power and control over another family or household member. Domestic violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. This includes any behavior that intimidates, manipulates, humiliates, isolates, frightens, terrorizes, coerces, threatens, hurts, injures, or wounds someone.
- iii. Sexual Assault is any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the consent of the recipient. Falling under the definition of sexual assault is sexual activity such as forced sexual intercourse, molestation, incest, fondling, rape, and attempted rape. It includes sexual acts against people who are unable to consent due to age or lack of capacity.
- iv. Sexual Misconduct is engaging in non-consensual contact of a sexual nature. Sexual misconduct may vary in its severity and consists of a range of behaviors or attempted behaviors.
- v. Sexual Harassment is a form of prohibited sex discrimination. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature by a College employee, by another student, or by a third party constitutes sexual harassment if such conduct is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive to limit the student's ability to participate in or benefit from an education program or activity or create a hostile or abusive educational environment.

- vi. Harassment, Threats, and Bullying on the basis of sex involves engaging in subjectively and objectively offensive verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion, bullying, or other conduct that threatens or endangers, the mental or physical health/safety of any person or causes reasonable apprehension of such harm that is persistent, severe, or pervasive and objectively offensive.
- vii. Stalking is a pattern of repeated and unwanted attention, harassment, contact, or any other course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear for their own safety or the safety of others.
- viii. Retaliation is any form of intimidation, reprisal, or harassment against an individual because they made a report of discrimination or harassment or because that individual has participated in an investigation of discrimination or harassment by or of a Triton College community member.
